Pooches march ten miles for charity

WALKERS and their four-legged friends put their best feet and paws forward during a charity walk through Heathfield and Waldron.

The group from Heathfield Vets completed their 10-mile stroll on Sunday in aid of Hounds for Heroes, a charity that provides assistance dogs to injured and disabled service men and women.

Money is still pouring in for their efforts but the group hope to have raised £2,000.

The 20 walkers, who were accompanied by 10 dogs, completed a circular route stopping for lunch at the Star Inn at Waldron.

Sally Clark, practice manager at the vets in Hailsham Road, said: "It might well make an annual event.

"We all really enjoyed it and it was great to get together with the dogs."
